It is the policy of Steven Papageorge Hair Academy to make students aware of any possible danger, facilitate the reporting of and where possible eliminate or minimize crime of any sort on the campus.

In the event that any student or staff member witnesses or has knowledge of a criminal act taking place anywhere on school premises:

Report it immediately to the instructor in charge or school manager. If in fact there was a crime the instructor or manager should report it to the local police.

Due to the small size and lack of need for security, Steven Papageorge Hair Academy does not have campus security police. However, local police are called (911) in the event of any criminal activity.

Each student and staff member is encouraged to be aware of their own security and that of others. Steven Papageorge Hair Academy is not responsible for the loss of any student's or employees personal belongings.
